French Country Inn & Cookbook

Family-owned since 1954 and Consistently ranked among the best restaurants in the DC-area, L'Auberge Chez Francois is a slice of France in our backyard. The beautiful location was chosen by the late Francois Haeringer, restaurant founder, because it reminded him of his Alsatian home. His son and award-winning chef, Jacques Haeringer, now owns L'Auberge Chez Francois and the more casual and intimate Jacques Brasserie on the lower level. Both restaurants offer unparalleled quality and excellent service for a lunch or dinner to savor. After your experience, try out your favorite dishes at home with the help of Chez Jacques' Two for Tonight cookbook.

A Wine Tasting Day

Enjoy a day in Virginia wine country!

The Barns at Hamilton Station Vineyards is a family owned and operated winery housed on a refurbished dairy farm. The winery is located just off of Route 7 in the quaint, historic town of Hamilton, Virginia only ten minutes from Leesburg. Beginning with carefully selected Virginia grapes, winemaker Michael Shaps creates wines inspired by the Bordeaux French style, but are uniquely expressive of Virginia. Eleven breathtaking acres surround a beautifully restored hundred and six-year-old stone and wood bank barn, which has been transformed into a unique tasting room.

Trader Joe's - It all started in the 50s... Would you believe we started out as a small chain of convenience stores? It's true. Way back in 1958. We were called Pronto Markets. In '67, our founder, the original Trader Joe, changed our name (yes, to Trader Joe's) and the way we do business. Enjoy this bag of 12 assorted food and snack items!
